Sheriff Edward N. Bonner releases the following:

Due to the quick action and willingness of a community member to take a stand against vandalism in Kings Beach, Placer County Sheriff's deputies arrested two local teens for a Christmas Eve vandalism.

Around 10 p.m. on December 24, the eyewitness saw the two suspects spray-painting graffiti on a wall located on public property near the intersection of Coon St. and Cutthroat Ave. Deputies took the two men into custody without incident.

The 17-year-old white male, a Kings Beach resident, was later released to his guardian. Charges against 18-year-old James Precit, also of Kings Beach, will be filed with the Placer County District Attorney's Office.
